

Individual Events for Individual People

Hospitality Guaranteed offer a unique and individual approach to sourcing venues and arranging events to suit each individual client, utilising experience and knowledge of the hospitality and tourism industry. Our expertise enables us to negotiate the best possible prices at handpicked venues to meet each client's criteria. We are passionate about customer service and committed to work with our clients at every stage, to surpass all expectations and ensure it's an event to remember!

Hospitality Guaranteed Ltd was formed by Amanda Jackson and Victoria Brunton in July 2006 following successful careers spanning over 16 years in the Hospitality Industry.

Quality Manager

"I have been involved with Hospitality Guaranteed since March 2007. Hospitality Guaranteed worked successfully to our brief and located appropriate accommodation in all areas. Their negotiations with the hotels proved extremely productive in terms of both cost and added benefits that the hotels are now offering. They have proved innovative in their solutions and have been effective in producing administrative processes that have undoubtedly saved time for our own administrators. I have found all the staff we have dealt with at Hospitality Guaranteed to be extremely helpful and clearly committed to customer care.

I would have no hesitation in recommending their services."

Regional Manager

"We have used Hospitality Guaranteed a number of times over the last couple of years and have been very satisfied with their service. Our biggest challenge as an organization came recently when we held a dinner in Yorkshire as this is not our home area.

Hospitality Guaranteed were invaluable not only did they source a fantastic venue but also all the required accommodation for our ever increasing number of guests, and in some cases at very short notice! Their service at all times is most professional and we will definitely be using their increased array of services in the future."

Regional Directors Office

"I first found out about Hospitality Guaranteed from Anna about two years ago and since then I have used them on a very regular basis. It doesn't matter what query you have, no matter what type of a venue you are requiring, they match it 10 out of 10.

I recently organised a team building event and nothing was a problem, the whole two day event went off like a dream and the feedback was second to none.

I would highly recommend the team at Hospitality Guaranteed for any conference or event or even just hotel bookings as their knowledge and attention to detail is fantastic.

Thank you very much."

Regional Trainer for the North East

"We continually found that our agent let us down with hotel choices and didn't listen to complaints about individual hotels or locations. I met Hospitality Guaranteed and have been astounded by their customer focus. No matter what the problem or query, they seem to solve it without hesitation or chasing. Why can't more companies be like this? They seem to have a knack of finding the right venues to suit our delegates."

Administration Support

"I started using Hospitality Guaranteed for hotels in locations I hadn't used before or had difficulty finding venues and because the information I received back was so good, I began using the service more and more. The staff are all friendly, flexible and extremely efficient and the information I receive from the team is prompt, reliable and of excellent quality.

Hospitality Guaranteed are a fantastic free hotel search facility that take the time and effort to look for good quality accommodation and venues on our behalf."

A Country Conference

International delegates from Alcan PLC were the perfect guests at Macdonald Linden Hall Golf and Country Club. Being their first visit to the area, and to Linden Hall, delegates enjoyed the modern conference facilities and attentive, yet discreet service by Linden Hall's dedicated staff. Hospitality Guaranteed liaised with us at every step to ensure the event ran smoothly from Day 1, their attention to detail was excellent and we look forward to welcoming them to the hotel in the near future.
